Mr. Lubbe Interviewed

Secretary of Esquimalt Water Works Co. Discusses Action of City Council.

Thinks the Intention to Record Rights at Goldstream a Very Wise Move.

Quotes Figures to Show What It Will Cost to Perfect Proposed Plan.

THE city council having decided to take the necessary legal steps at once to record the claim of the corporation to the water at Goldstream, a Colonist reporter yesterday called on Theo. Lubbe, secretary of the Esquimalt Water Works Company, with a view to ascertaining his opinion of this action. He said:

"The council have taken the best step possible. We will now have the matter of legal rights decided one way or the other. Of course, we will contest the application in the courts, but I think it will be very easily settled. It will not hurt our position in the least, and is the best step the city could take."

"Ald. Douglas deserves credit for the way he kept at the question of taking water from below the power house. It is not the first time he has spoken about it, and even on Tuesday evening he had to ask a number of times before anyone took notice of his remarks."

"How long will it be before the question will be brought to an issue?" asked the reporter.

"Well, I don't know," replied Mr. Lubbe, "as I am not aware how they intend to proceed."

Mr. Lubbe was next asked if the company intended their offer to read that they would give the city water over 5,000,000 gallons per day, not to exceed 15,000,000, free of charge.

"That is our proposition, and we will stand by it," he replied. "I notice some of the aldermen appeared sceptical about that offer. Well, they have no need to fear; we will live up to everything that is in the offer."

"What will be the position of the British Columbia Electric Company?"

"Well," replied Mr. Lubbe, "they will be out of it entirely if the city gets the water. The lighting department of the tramway company will be knocked clean out, as the city will be able to supply light so much cheaper. It is the best scheme the city can undertake, and it is the same identical plan I recommended to the city when the directors of the waterworks company met the council recently."

Unlimited Supply

"If the city secures the water from Goldstream, as it is trying to do at present, it will not be necessary to construct a reservoir or procure a pump, as they will have enough force to supply everybody without meters or a pump."

"Mr. Adams in his report stated that a reservoir and pump would be necessary," remarked the reporter.

"Mr. Adams does not know what he is talking about when he says that. If the city erects a power house at Millstream this will give a minimum effective height of 390 feet, or an average effective height of 410 feet above sea level. With this height it will be possible to give a minimum supply of 25,000,000 gallons per day, out of which 10,000,000 gallons could be used for power purposes, which would give 150 horse-power for a 24-hour day on a single switchboard, or 1,800 horse-power for a 10-hour day."

"If the city secures a decision in its favor, it will be necessary, in order to supply a sufficient quantity of water to people, without meters or pumping, to lay a 30-inch main from Goldstream for a distance of ten miles to the foot of Arm street, Victoria West, at a cost of $295,400. Or if they desire a supply for power as well, they will have to lay a 42-inch main from Goldstream to Millstream, a distance of five miles, with a capacity of 25,000,000 gallons per 24 hours (less a fractional loss of ten feet per mile); thence to the foot of Arm street, a distance of five miles, in a 24-inch main, with a capacity of 5,000,000 gallons per day for domestic purposes, at a cost, for the 42-inch and 20-inch mains, of $381,600."

"Besides this, there would be a 42-inch branch to the power house, $15,000; power house at Millstream, hydraulic and electric machinery, transmission line to the Store street station, $100,000. The line loss of electric current from Millstream to the Store street station will not exceed 5 per cent, as compared with 12 per cent from the present power house at Goldstream, a saving of 7 per cent on this one item alone. These figures show what it will cost the city if it gets the water. It is now making application for."

CRITICIZES THE CHURCHES.

Dwight L. Moody's Successor Speaks of American Protestants.

New York, Aug. 23.—A criticism of the American Protestant churches was voiced today by Rev. Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, who has been working in the late Dwight L. Moody's place at East Northfield, Mass. When on the point of sailing for Europe today in the ship Baltic, Rev. Morgan said: "The American church does not seem to be much more than a social organization now. Its members spend more time developing along social lines than they do along spiritual lines. The business men, the influential Christians and those who are in a position to do their duty in the pursuit of pleasures or frivolity; they lose track of the way and forget the pledges they made to their church."

"The old fire and old-time spirit are lacking, and without this what can be expected by social clubs but a leading away from God and the path. How can a business man expect to have an influence with his fellow-men if he does not know his life, its methods and just how far he practices what he preaches."

"What the churches want is more of God and less of dress and social position; more of the spirit of the Master and less of strife for place and money and more religion by example and life than by preaching and talking."

Roosevelt's Appeal to Czar

President Makes Final Effort to Secure Peace in the Far East.

Sent a Personal Solicitation to Emperor to Aid in Ending the War.

Postponement of Conference to Saturday Viewed as Good Omen.

OSTER BAY, N. Y., Aug. 23.—President Roosevelt's final effort to induce a cessation of hostilities in the far east is almost dramatic in its extraordinary interest.

Through Geo. L. Von Meyer, the American ambassador at St. Petersburg, he has made a direct appeal to Emperor Nicholas to permit the adoption of such measures in the pending peace conference as will terminate the war.

A long telegram was sent to Ambassador Meyer by the President late on Monday. It contained instructions for representations, on behalf of President Roosevelt, to be made directly to the Russian emperor. There is reason for believing that the Russian emperor's views were communicated yesterday to the Russian envoys at Portsmouth through the President's messenger.

As a result of the instructions he received, Ambassador Meyer had a special audience of Emperor Nicholas today at Peterhof palace.

The report received from Assistant Secretary of State Peirce at Portsmouth that the peace plenipotentiaries had adjourned their sittings until next Saturday was a source of satisfaction. It is a distinct assurance that efforts are being made with increasing prospect of success to compromise on the crucial points of difference among the conferees. It is regarded as certain that every hour gained in the time of the conference makes for a peaceful solution of the differences.

Has Gained His Points

Thus far the President has gained his point, once after another. It was difficult to his efforts that the conference did not break up finally last week, and his further suggestions prevented a final dissolution of the conference on Monday. Now he has carried his appeal, too, which can be said to have the positive support of the great neutral powers.

It is stated late tonight that Japan has proposed to Russia that the question of indemnity for war expenses was waived practically, and that Russia agree to purchase a portion of Sakhalin for $800,000,000. It is believed that one part of the proposition submitted to Baron Rosen by the President was that Russia should purchase the island of Sakhalin either in part or as a whole, and that if the conferees were unable to agree upon a price to be paid for it the amount be left to the determination of an impartial tribunal.

Now the question of the proposition made by Japan through Baron Komura will rest with Emperor Nicholas. Even should it be rejected it is almost certain now that it would be succeeded by other propositions looking toward an ultimate agreement of the plenipotentiaries.

Japanese Offer To Compromise

Foregoes Indemnity if Russia Pays Sixty Millions for Half of Sakhalin.

Interned Ships and Limit to Naval Power will also be Conceded

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 23.—The plenipotentiaries today, at the conclusion of the afternoon session of the peace conference, threw their cards upon the table. It was the dramatic moment, the moment to which all the previous proceedings of the conference had led. The plenipotentiaries agreed on eight of the twelve conditions originally presented by Japan had been signed. One side or the other must make a move or the plenipotentiaries had reached the parting of the ways. The adversaries faced each other across the table. Of course, it was well understood what would happen, but that in a way only made it more dramatic.

Figuratively President Roosevelt entered the conference room. M. Witte sat silent, and the move in the great diplomatic game passed to Japan.

Baron Komura in a few words explained that Japan, in her great desire for peace, was ready to make certain "modifications" of the original articles, in the hope that Russia could find it possible to accept them. He then presented in written form to M. Witte the compromise proposition which President Roosevelt had suggested. It was concrete and specific, and it followed the lines outlined in the despatches. It offered to withdraw Article 9, providing for the payment by Russia of Japan's bill for the cost of the war, on condition that Russia would accept Article 5, which provides for the cession of Sakhalin, so modified as to include an arrangement for the repurchase by Russia of the northern half of the island for 120,000,000 yen. In addition it offered to withdraw entirely Articles 12 and 13 (surrender of the interned warships and limitation upon Russia's sea power in the Far East).

But the real hope still rests with President Roosevelt. He has made another move. He has sent Ambassador Meyer direct to the emperor, and they were together, according to advices received here, for three hours today.

Mr. Roosevelt himself tonight may know more about how the emperor feels than M. Witte and he will be able to act upon the information conveyed to him by his ambassador. The report is industriously circulated here that Emperor Nicholas and everything is traced back to the meeting of the two emperors on board the Hohenzollern in the Finnish gulf. In support of this it is positively stated that after the interview M. Witte's instructions were made stronger and more yielding.

The following approximate statement of the Russian position with regard to the phase of the negotiations created by the presentation of the Japanese compromise is given:

BANK OFFICIALS ARRESTED.

Depositors of Defunct Denver Savings Bank Take Action.

Denver, Col., Aug. 23.—Warrants were issued by District Attorney George Sledge today on complaint of depositors of the Denver Savings Bank for the arrest of President J. A. Hill, Vice-President P. P. Jones and some minor officials of the bank, which was placed in the hands of a receiver last Saturday. The nature of the charges was not made public. President Hill is said to be in Oklahoma and Vice-President Jones is in Colorado Springs.

RUSSIAN MILITARY TRAINS.

Officer Detailed to Investigate Numerous Recent Accidents.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—It was stated today that the sudden departure from St. Petersburg Monday night of Prince Hilkoff, minister of railroads, was for the purpose of investigating the cause of serious accidents which occurred recently in Southern Russia to military trains going to the front. In one of these accidents, which took place on the vicinity of Kazan, 20 soldiers were killed and 2 officers and 40 soldiers injured.

The departure of Prince Hilkoff was at first connected with the purpose of the government to send further reinforcements to the General Lincolns, and this led to increased pessimism regarding the prospects of peace.

Pacific Coast Happenings

Party of C. P. R. Officials Reach Bellingham on Annual Tour.

Air Ship's Successful Flight at Portland—Young Girl's Sad End.

BELLINGHAM, Aug. 23.—A party of C. P. R. officials arrived here today and spent several hours with the local agent of the road and the representatives of the B. & N. C. They denied the report that had any significance towards the purchase of the B. & N. C., and said they were merely looking into traffic matters. In the afternoon the officials left via the Northern Pacific for Seattle. The company included W. R. McInnes, freight traffic manager; Robert Kerr, passenger traffic manager; P. W. Peters, assistant freight agent, Winnipeg; W. T. Greer, advertising agent, Montreal; B. W. Greer, freight agent, and E. J. Coyle, passenger agent of Vancouver.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—The schooner Salvador has arrived from Nushagaka with a cargo of 5240 barrels of salmon. Portland, Ore., Aug. 23.—After being in the air half an hour, covering six miles, the airship City of Portland landed without a hitch of any kind in the identical spot whence it started. It is considered the most successful airship flight ever made here.

Vancouver, Wash., Aug. 23.—With her wedding dress made and within three days of the time set for her marriage, Viola Moorey committed suicide last evening at the home of her parents near Ambury by swallowing a dose of strychnine. Saturday evening after a lover's quarrel the engaged couple started for a dance at Yacoti. The couple never attended the dance and the next morning the parents of the girl, Mr. and Mrs. D. Moorey, saw of their daughter was the discovery of her dead body near their home.

YELLOW FEVER REPORT.

New Orleans, Aug. 23.—The yellow fever report to 6 p. m. today is: New cases today, 53; total to date, 1,556; deaths today, 5; total to date, 219; new feed, 10; total feed to date, 351; under treatment, 312.

FIRE ON THE OCEANIC.

White Star Liner Damaged But Sails on Schedule Time.

Liverpool, Aug. 23.—Fire broke out this afternoon in the stowage of the White Star line steamer Oceanic. The extent of the damage is not yet known. The Oceanic sailed for New York at 5 o'clock this afternoon, according to schedule. Her passengers include Anthony Flah, of Brooklyn, N. Y., leader of the Zeigler polar expedition, the members of which were recently rescued by the relief ship Terra Nova.

TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP.

Holcombe and Ward Successfully Defend Their Title.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 23.—Without exertion Holcombe and Ward of New York, and Beals C. Wright of Boston, successfully defended their national tennis championship in the doubles on the Casino courts today by defeating F. B. Alexander and S. H. L. Hackett, both of New York, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3. The doubles championship match was the main event of the day, but, in addition, the entire second round in the singles championship event was completed, making up the doubles matches. 15 tennis contests decided in two days, a record in this sport.

CRIME IN BALTIC PROVINCE.

Situation Not Improving and Several Political Murders Reported.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—The situation in the Baltic provinces is not improving. Several political murders have been reported. Official advices show that the disturbances are fostered and directed by a thoroughly organized social revolutionary committee with headquarters at Riga, the emissaries of which defy the best efforts of the police. The intelligence department of this committee supplied ample warning of the movements of the troops. Four of the leaders were arrested recently, one of whom was a woman. The social revolutionists are very strong at Riga, Revel and Libau.

SITUATION IN POLAND.

Military Measures Prevent the Strike Becoming General.

Warsaw, Aug. 23.—Owing to the strong military measures adopted, the strike will not become general. Many shops are open and only a few banks, insurance companies and commercial houses are closed. Still the situation is serious. Practically all the factories at Warsaw and Lodz are closed. Serious rioting has occurred at the latter place, the strikers forcing the shops to close down by smashing the windows. The strike on the railroads and tramways continues, and telegraph and telephone lines are closed. The newspapers are not appearing at Lodz.

Not a Cent Of Indemnity

St. Petersburg Firm in Refusal of Financial Contribution of Any Kind.

Proposed Payment Under Disguised Terms Is Not Acceptable.

All Remaining Points Could Be Adjusted to Russia's Satisfaction.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 24.—The Associated Press has the best of assurances and authority for declaring that Russia will never consent to the payment of an indemnity to Japan. The payment would so greatly menace the vital interests of the state as to make this article in the Japanese press utterly impossible of acceptance. Furthermore, the Associated Press has the same reasons for the declaration that if Japan withdrew her indemnity demand, peace would practically be assured, as the Russian attitude on the three other points, including the cession of Sakhalin, does not preclude the possibility of reaching a satisfactory settlement on these points.

Indemnity is the crux of the whole matter. If this question can be arranged, it is believed here that all other questions on which there has been a difference of opinion will practically settle themselves.

In view of the known Russian attitude on the other eight points, Russia believes that Japan's insistence on indemnity is the only thing that will make peace impossible. Officials declare that attempts at word-juggling, such as calling indemnity by some other name, or attempting to collect indemnity under the guise of other payments, will avail nothing.

No Financial Contribution

Russia, they say, will not conclude a peace treaty at Portsmouth which involves any payment of indemnity or other financial contribution. Russia is ready, however, to make a reasonable and proper payment for the maintenance of the Russian prisoners in the hands of the Japanese.

This has been the attitude of the foreign office since the four points in dispute were referred to St. Petersburg from Portsmouth, and it is the true expression of Russian official and public opinion. Since the beginning of the discussion here on Japan's original terms, there has been absolutely nothing to suggest that Russia could or would pay indemnity. Each day has sharpened the conviction that such a payment is impossible, and today the universal opinion, from the highest to the lowest, is that Japan's insistence on an indemnity dooms the Portsmouth negotiations to failure. Russia recognizes the serious financial conditions of the country, but they declare these conditions will never force the payment of an indemnity, dishonorable in itself, and which would most seriously menace the very life of the state.

Interview With Emperor

St. Petersburg, Aug. 23.—Mr. Meyer, the American ambassador, had an audience with the emperor at Peterhof this afternoon which lasted three hours. Presumably the matter of peace was discussed at length but nothing can be ascertained at present regarding what actually occurred, as the embassy declines to give out any statement. It is known, however, that a long cablegram has been sent to Washington, giving the results of the conference. Mr. Meyer left St. Petersburg at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, arriving at Peterhof about one hour later and returned to St. Petersburg shortly before 8 o'clock. The emperor attended the manoeuvres in the morning and returned to Peterhof just in time to receive Mr. Meyer.

Paris, Aug. 23.—Reports from Portsmouth today indicating prospects of mutual concessions restored the feeling of confidence in official and financial circles. The bourse showed a notable improvement from the sudden slump of yesterday. Russian securities were in active demand from the start. The appearance of the Russian bank statement also favorably influenced the situation. This shows that the debit balance of the government to the banks had been replaced by a government credit of $14,520,000.

U. S. COTTON REPORT FRAUDS.

Prominent Official Arrested for Complicity in Leakages.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Frederick A. Peckham, an official in the cotton department of agriculture, cotton reports scandal, was arrested here today and arraigned before United States Commissioner Chas. N. Davidson, who ordered an adjournment of examination till tomorrow, in default of $12,000 bail. Peckham was lodged in jail.

Washington, Aug. 23.—Peckham had been one of the most conspicuous figures in the investigation of the cotton report leakage in the department of agriculture. His indictment is the first which has become known in connection with the sensational developments growing out of the charges against the integrity of the government cotton statistics. It is understood that his arrest was made on a bench warrant issued by Chief Justice Clayburn of the Supreme court of the District of Columbia for alleged conspiracy to defraud the United States government in connection with the cotton crop report of the department of agriculture.

Mr. Peckham's name has been associated closely with Moses Haas, of New York, and Both Declined to Testify before the grand jury here. Secretary Wilson reported that L. G. Vanripper, of New York, said that Haas acted as a go-between in conveying information from Holmes to Peckham. Secretary Wilson's report charged Holmes with communicating advance information to Vanripper and Moses Haas of New York.

They were the guests at luncheon at the Hunt Club. In the afternoon they attended a garden party given by the city on the mountain, which drew a large gathering of society people; afterwards dining with the St. James Club members. In the evening the naval and military tournament was resumed, the sailors leaving for Quebec on the completion of the programme. Prince Louis leaves in the morning.

Durnan Beats Sullivan

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Eddie Durnan of Toronto, defeated Tom Sullivan, the New Zealand sculler, this afternoon on Toronto harbor for $1,000 a side and the championship of America. Durnan won by fifteen lengths. Sullivan was first away; at the half-mile he led by a length. This he increased by a length near the turn, when he steered badly and lost three or four lengths negotiating the buoy, while Durnan made a beautiful turn. After the turn Durnan opened a wide gap, as Sullivan seemed to tire rapidly. The time for the mile was 10:38, and 20:56 for the two miles. At the finish Durnan was paddling and Sullivan was plainly suffering from his start to wear Durnan down in the early part of the race. Twenty thousand people witnessed the race, and a good deal of money changed hands. Durnan was a strong favorite in the betting.

Arguing Law In Collins Case

W. J. Taylor, K. C., Advances Points of Law in Favor of Accused Lawyer.

Oath Not Being Required by Canadian Law Perjury Could Not Be Charged.

The habeas corpus proceedings brought before Mr. Justice Duff by George D. Collins, who was committed for extradition to San Francisco on Saturday by Judge Lammiman, were continued yesterday, when Mr. W. J. Taylor, K. C., for the prisoner argued law points in connection with the case.

Mr. Taylor contended that the oath upon which the charge of perjury against Mr. Collins was based was not required by the laws of Canada and therefore there could be no indictment against its maker under the laws of Canada.

That the words in the criminal code "authorized or required" in relation to perjury had a meaning derived from the common law prior to the extradition statute upon oath might then have produced three different effects upon the maker of the oath—in a judicial proceeding, it was perjury; if not, and the oath were required by some statute or rule of common law, a misdemeanor; if not in a judicial proceeding or required by law, a liability to civil action at the suit of the party aggrieved. The code abolished the distinction between felonies and misdemeanors and grouped in one clause a definition combining the effect of the two. In order to do so it became necessary to repeat the words "authorized or required by law" in order to include misdemeanors within the term perjury. The requirement of an oath is now an essential, as formerly, in order to found a charge of perjury.

The law of British Columbia does not require an oath in the extradition of a pleading. An affidavit for such purpose would be an impertinence amounting to a contempt of court, but it could not be perjury. The acts charged must be by the provisions of the Extradition Act amounting to crime according to the laws of Canada. The acts charged here, if committed in Canada, would not be perjury, because the oath was neither authorized nor required here.

His lordship, however, intimated that it was a question of fact, rather than of law, as to the necessity of an oath according to the practice of the Californian courts.

Mr. Taylor held there was no authority for such an oath as that alleged to have been made by the accused, and perjury could not be charged. He also took up the point that the facts as testified by the witness Henry, the San Francisco notary, did not constitute the administration of an oath. In going before the notary with a paper already signed, holding up his hand and saying, "I swear to that," and paying the fee required after the notary had affixed his seal, the accused had not taken an oath. It was necessary that he touch the scriptures before he could be sworn. There was, however, a distinction between affirmation and an oath. The jurat of the affidavit made by Collins stated that it was sworn to, not affirmed.

Mr. Taylor also dwelt upon the evidence of the accused in the extradition proceedings when, he said, the commissioner had ignored the evidence of accused that Charlotte Newman was not his wife when he contracted the marriage with Charlie McCurdy, his present wife.

As to Former Marriage

With regard to the former marriage, there was no attempt made to contradict the accused upon this point. The judge was in the position of a magistrate upon a preliminary hearing, and an indictable offence. The extradition Act so stated. A magistrate was not justified in comparing conflicting testimony, weighing or assigning degrees of credibility to such testimony. That was the function of a trial judge or jury. When an antecedent fact was introduced and contradicted, and did not in any way conflict with the testimony of the prosecution nor have an effect inconsistent with that testimony, the magistrate was not entitled arbitrarily to disregard such fact. The antecedent fact by operation of law removed the case from the jurisdiction of the magistrate and the case was referred to the trial judge and complete testimony, thereby assuming a jury's function.

The afternoon session was entirely devoted to the argument of the law points of the extradition Act, the admission of the oath under the laws of Canada.

Canadian Law The Test

The facts deposed must be measured by the law of Canada. The Extradition Act so stated, and the treaty as well. An act which might be criminal in one country might not be in another, and perjury might not amount to perjury in Canada, and would not constitute an extraditable offence, and vice versa. It might so happen that a fugitive might successfully resist surrender in one state of the union and be surrendered from another for the reason that the law of one might impose the requirement of an oath and the other not. In the same way an American fugitive might be safe in England and be surrendered by Canada, for the reason that the treaty and the Extradition Act following declared that the law of the country of refuge must constitute the place where the fugitive was apprehended. In England the materiality of the false allegation must be proved, otherwise no perjury could be charged. Whereas in Canada the criminal code dispensed with the necessity of proof of the materiality of the allegation. If a demand were made for a fugitive in England, among other facts proof would have to be given by the prosecution of the materiality of the false allegation before surrender. Canada would surrender without such proof. The reason for this was the place of apprehension was declared to be the place of adjudication of criminality. While it might be assumed that the affidavit was made in a court in British Columbia, it could not be assumed that the courts of British Columbia or the laws of British Columbia had some added effect by reason of the fact that some law in California may require some incidents omitted in the British Columbia laws. Otherwise the effect would be that the British Columbia laws would not be a certain quantity, but would be variable, fluctuating in response to the variations that existed in foreign laws. Criminality would not be measured by our laws, but by foreign laws. Precisely what the code had declared should not be.

The case was remanded until Friday morning, when his lordship being required to go to Vancouver today.

A despatch to the Vancouver World from a special correspondent in Victoria says: "A new and sensational element has presented itself in the case in extradition by Collins, endorsed by his Canadian counsel, that overtures were made to the prisoner just prior to the handing down of Judge Lammiman's orders for surrender to the effect that if he would pay in full the expenses and disbursements incurred to date by the prosecution in the proceedings against him here and in California, all further proceedings would be abandoned. Collins is said to have flatly rejected these proposals, which came from one of the San promise today was made to the Associated Press today.

Statements have appeared in prominent American and English newspapers which, while eloquent, studiously mislead the world as to the prospects of peace and the general character of Japan's new proposal, with which it is intended Russia can close without loss of dignity. The regrettable mistake into which the representatives of these journals have undoubtedly fallen is obviously the result of misleading data handed with real, but secondary facts. Thus it is quite true, as those papers predicted, that the envoys of Japan came forward at today's sitting with a proposal which was new in form but old in substance. It is equally true that the proposal lacks the two contentious clauses stipulating that Russia shall surrender her naval strength on the Pacific, and that it reduces the difference between the two powers to the comparison of what is in appearance a single question, the sale of Sakhalin.

Seemingly, therefore, Japan has also struck her pen through the most obnoxious clause of all, that which deals with indemnity, and all that she now asks Russia to do, in addition to the terms already agreed upon, is to purchase the northern half of Sakhalin for a sum of 120,000,000 yen, Japan having obtained all that is needed and longed for as a nation, now narrows down the issue to a question of dollars and cents, yet refuses for peace sake to waive her demand. Russia, on the contrary, has conceded freely and fully everything that she could consistently with her sense of national honor and dignity. To withdraw the cash claim, therefore, would be immensely easier to Japan than it would be for Russia to allow it. Therefore, despite the positive and emphatic declaration of the well-meaning but mistaken journalists alluded to above, peace is not and cannot be assured until Japan unreservedly withdraws her claim to have the costs of the campaign refunded by Russia.

The prosecution deny this, likewise the defence. Yesterday Mr. Collins was asked if he had made the allegation and he replied that he had not; he had heard nothing about it until he saw the Vancouver paper. Mr. Frank Higgins, counsel for the prosecution, said tersely that is a lie. Mr. D. V. Higgins, assistant district attorney of San Francisco, said: "There is not a word of truth in it." Detective Gibson, the only other San Franciscan now here in connection with the case, said: "Some one must have dreamed that."

PHYSICIAN OF A GREAT STATE HOSPITAL

Uses Pe-ru-na in his Own Family as a Cathartic Tonic.

Dr. ENSOR, of Columbia, South Carolina, is a practicing physician of very extensive experience.

He was at one time superintendent and physician in charge of the State Insane Asylum, which gave him a rare opportunity to observe on a large scale the effect of various remedies upon the human system.

Dr. Ensor has not only used Peruna in his family, but has taken it himself. He has also brought in close touch with other people who have used Peruna.

It gives it unequalled endorsement as a remedy for catarrh and as an invigorating summer tonic.

It is just such testimonials as these which have given Peruna such a high standard in the estimation of the American public.

There is no way possible to gain such frank and genuine testimony.

The only way to account for such testimony is the fact that Peruna really does what is claimed for it.

Because it cures catarrh, it clears the way for nature to reassert her sway over the physiological forces of the body and thus rid the system of a great many different chronic diseases.

Catarrh is the stronghold of lingering diseases.

Once rid the system of catarrh, and it is very difficult indeed for disease to linger very long.

We have on file thousands of testimonials like the one given here. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast number of grateful letters Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving from all quarters of the globe in behalf of his famous catarrh remedy, Peruna.

After using your Peruna for a short time myself, and my family having used it and are now using the same with good results, and upon the information of others who have been benefited by it as a cure for catarrh and an invigorating tonic, I can cheerfully recommend it to all persons requiring so effective a remedy.

Gives Description Of Kaia Island

Bishop Du Vernet Writes of Suggested G. T. P. Western Terminus.

Townsite Is Situated on a Magnificent Land Locked Harbor.

F. H. Du Vernet, bishop of Caledonia, writes the following letter to the Toronto Globe: "While it may be quite true that the board of directors of the Grand Trunk have not yet even considered the question of the site of the western terminus, yet those closely connected with the company have taken such preliminary steps as to render it safe to say that the most probable site is Kaia Island, on Tuck's Inlet."

"A brief description from one who has been all around this locality may be of interest."

"Kaia Island (pronounced by the Indians Kayen) is about 25 miles south of Port Simpson. It is a mountainous island, but on its north shore facing Tuck's Inlet there is a strip of land gradually sloping back to the base of the mountain from half a mile to a mile and a half in width, and about three miles in length. This is the probable townsite. The island is separated from the mainland by a narrow passage, but the mainland is rocky and unsuitable for buildings. To the west of Kaia Island and separated from it by a strip of deep water, less than a mile in width, which forms the entrance to Tuck's Inlet, is Digby Island, 7,250 acres in size. This is a comparatively level island with good soil, but it is an Indian reserve. Digby Island forms the western breakwater to Tuck's Inlet, which is about ten miles in length. Coming in from the Pacific by Brown's Entrance there is a channel a mile wide with a uniform depth of over eighteen fathoms. On most charts this has been erroneously marked "foul water." When near the west shore of Kaia Island, the entrance to the harbor is passing between Digby Island on the left and Kaia Island on the right."

"We sounded here again and again and found no bottom at 20 fathoms. This is the immediate entrance. Another sound here and the water is deep. It brings one to the proposed townsite, situated on a magnificent landlocked harbor, large enough to float the British navy."

Foolish Land Speculation

"As serious injury is often done to a new country by foolish land speculation, made by ignorant investors, it may be well to note that so far as Kaia Island is concerned there is absolutely no room for private speculation. The Dominion government owns the whole of Digby Island as an Indian reserve. The provincial government has reserved the mountainous part of Kaia Island, worthless for building purposes, but suitable for a military post. The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company indirectly through an official has control of 10,000 acres, which embraces all the level land on Kaia Island not Indian reserve, and some good land on the opposite side of Tuck's Inlet, a second Port Moody ignores the fact that the Dominion government is an active partner in the contract. When the G. T. P. submits its plan for a western terminus to the Dominion government, and the Dominion government approves of the location, this must be final for the marine department must light the way in from the Pacific—an entirely different entrance to that of Port Simpson harbor if Tuck's Inlet is the choice. Port Moody and Vancouver are on the same inlet, and it was a simple matter to extend the C. P. R. a few miles nearer the sea."

"Northern British Columbia, with its magnificent scenery, its salmon, its forest and its untold natural wealth in forest and field, mine and sea, will soon become most attractive to settlers. I am anxious to do all in my power to help the right kind of people to come to this beautiful Northwest, and shall be glad to give any information that I can regarding Northern British Columbia, the district in which I am constantly traveling. Speculation in town lots which are on the side of steep mountains or on some rocky inlet miles away from any possible city will not help but retard the development of our country."

"Bishop of Caledonia."

"Toronto Junction."

A Chimney Fire.—The fire department was called last night to the residence of Mr. Hardress Clarke on Stanley avenue because of a chimney fire. Little damage resulted, the fire being promptly extinguished by the chemical of the Yates street station.

The death occurred on Tuesday evening at the family residence, Nanaimo, of Lucinda Marie O'Brien, beloved daughter of Mrs. D. G. Daly, aged 19 years and 11 months. Deceased was born in Nanaimo and up to about two years ago was in good health and one of the loveliest of Nanaimo's daughters. She then took sick with a slowly wasting disease and since then has been gradually worse. Every effort was made to arrest the progress of the disease but without success, and for the past several months the family have been sadly waiting for the end to come. Deceased leaves one brother, Clarence O'Brien, besides her mother, Mrs. Daly, stepfather, Mr. D. G. Daly, and three half sisters to mourn her loss.

Attorney Sidney W. Smith, of Omaha, who has been spending his vacation of several weeks in the city with his parents, Consul and Mrs. Smith, started yesterday on his return to Nebraska.

LOCAL NEWS.

A Growing Business.—Messrs. Hutchison Bros. have been figuring on a large increase of business in the automobile line and have ordered a 1906 model of the White steam car. This machine is capable of carrying six passengers and is said to be the latest out. They are also figuring on another delivery wagon for a local merchant, but the deal has not yet been closed.

Will Send Exhibit.—George Greig, secretary of the Western Canadian Live Stock Association, has interested the breeders of pure bred stock in Manitoba to make an exhibit at the Dominion Fair at New Westminster. Already six carloads of pure bred stock have been secured for an exhibit, and it is believed that the Manitoba men will be in a position to make a good showing.

Bodies Not Recovered.—Rev. E. Pugh and wife of Lytton are visiting the coast cities. Mr. Pugh states that the bodies of five Indians who perished in the recent disastrous landslide at Spence's Bridge have not been recovered. The injured, six in number, have been conveyed to the hospital at Lytton, where they are making as satisfactory progress as could be expected.

The fact that you have a horse to sell is a secret, shared by yourself and a few friends, perhaps, until you have advertised it in the classified columns—then the people who want to buy horses are "put wise."

Miners Disappointed.—A rumor appears somehow to have got abroad that the Fraser at Lytton and neighboring points at the present time, and as a result large numbers of people are going up there with the intention of washing for gold on the numerous bars. The water, according to Rev. E. Pugh, of Lytton, is unusually high at present, so that gold seekers are meeting with disappointment. Mr. Pugh thinks that low water need not be expected till November or December next.

Painful Accident.—Wm. Hanlgrain, second mate of the steamer Venture, was recently the victim of a painful accident. He was engaged in superintending the unloading of some salmon at Messrs. Evans, Coleman & Evans' wharf, and while standing near an open hatchway lost his balance and fell into the hold. He was removed to the hospital, where it was found that several ribs had been fractured. His injuries were attended to and he is now getting along nicely.

Salt Higher.—Owing to the demand for salt to be used in fish curing purposes in the north it is now materially higher in price in wholesale quantities. On the steamer Venture, which sailed for the northern coast Tuesday night, there was forwarded a big shipment intended for the cargo of the Japanese vessel now loading fish in Alaska. With what she received here and that taken aboard in Vancouver the steamer carries 300 tons of salt. The result of so large a shipment on the local market has had its effect to raise the price from $10 to $12.50 per ton.

Fine Floral Display.—Under the able direction of the head gardener, Mark Parsons, the show of dahlias and asters in the gardens of the government buildings are something very remarkable. For size, perfection of shape, wealth of coloring and general grouping and effect they compare very favorably with some of the choicest private collections and have excited the admiration of many who pride themselves upon being connoisseurs in local floriculture. Countless tourists halt in their march upon the precincts of power, arrested by the glowing masses of color and beauty which contribute in no small degree to enhance these first impressions, which are always the most lasting of the visitors to Victoria.

THE TOTAL NUMBER OF NAMES SENT IN WAS

The Judges' labors have been much greater than we anticipated. We wish to thank them for the careful manner in which they have accomplished their somewhat difficult and thankless task.

Their decision was arrived at for the following reasons:

1. "NEMO" is short and Easily pronounced—most essential points for a food which is already in most households.
2. "NEMO" is the first word in Scotland's renowned motto:

"Nemo Me Impune Lacessit."

Applications have already been sent in to register the above names as Trade Marks.

"NEMO" "PURA" "FRUMETTI"

We had already instructed the manufacturers to proceed with specially constructed "Airtight" packages, which we shall have lithographed and on the market in due course.

A FINE COUNTRY HOME DESTROYED

Flames Eat up Roland Stuart's Residence and Art Treasures.

The early morning fire reported to have been in progress when the Colonial went to press yesterday proved to be the handsome residence of Roland Stuart, Halcyon Park, Metcalfe district, the building with the contents being totally destroyed.

It is estimated that the loss in the establishment will total upwards of $36,000—the house being valued at $2,000, the contents at $25,000 and the barns at $2,000. The most regrettable feature of the unfortunate incident, however, lies in the fact that Mr. Stuart loses a great quantity of rare valuables, precious not alone for their intrinsic value, but for the fact that they comprised a collection treasured as well for their associations as for works of art.

Mr. Stuart being now absent in the Old Country, the place was in charge of E. Conway, who with his family occupied the residence. When the fire was discovered it had gained such headway that Mrs. Conway and the three children barely had time to make their escape. How it started is a mystery. Mr. Conway thinks it broke out in the kitchen, and that sparks from the stove might have been responsible. He states that even had the fire department been at hand when the flames were discovered, nothing could have been done to save the structure.

Included in the contents was some very valuable furniture, many pieces of antique design and highly prized on that account. The library, which was a very complete one, contained many MSS. of George Eliot, the famous novelist, who was a personal friend of Mr. Stuart's mother, a lengthy correspondence having ensued between the two—Mr. Stuart treasuring the letters of the great authoress as amongst his most precious belongings.

On the walls hung many rich oil paintings, the whole collection being valued at not less than $5,000. A considerable quantity of solid silver was in the residence, but Mr. Stuart had taken the precaution to have this stored in a specially constructed vault, and though the latter has not yet been opened, it is hoped that its contents are intact.

The monetary loss is pretty well covered by the insurance, the house being insured for $20,000 in the Canadian Society, and the pictures for $2,500 in the Commercial Union.

STOMACH AND LIVER TROUBLES.

Mr. Alex. M. Finn, Inverness, N. B., writes: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for derangements of the kidneys and liver and stomach troubles, and can certify that they did me a good deal of good. I can heartily recommend them to anyone suffering from them."

FROM LYNN CANAL.

Cottage City Returned Yesterday—The Yukon River Falling.

Steamer Cottage City reached port yesterday from Skagway, Sitka, Ketchikan and other ports of the Alaskan coast with a fair complement of passengers. The Cottage City brought news that water in the Yukon river is lowering quickly and shippers will have to hurry their freight if they wish it to reach Dawson this season. With the falling of the water the river steamers of the White Pass route will be forced to take smaller cargoes from White Horse, with the result that as the end of the season of navigation approaches a congestion of late-shipped goods will occur at White Horse and hundreds of tons of freight sent north a little later than "the last moment" will be held at White Horse all winter.

On August 12 the water in the Fifty-mile was 69 inches above possible navigation level; on August 16 the gauge registered 68 inches, and on August 17 it registered 67 inches, showing the fall to have swung well into existence at the rate of one inch per day.

At the present time the water in the upper river is of a sufficient depth to permit all steamships to take full cargoes down to Dawson. A fall of a foot will necessitate a reduction in the amount of cargo taken out for the season that even at the present stage of water difficulty is encountered in getting through Hell Gate with full cargoes.

Local News.

Tenders for Machinery.—F. Gourdeau, deputy minister of marine and fisheries, is calling for tenders which will be received up till noon of September 11th for the supplying of fog alarm machinery. Specifications can be seen and forms of tender procured at the agency of the department at Victoria.

Address Wanted.—Miss Matilda Normandy of Wyandotte, Mich., is anxious to locate Mr. Robert Richards, who was last heard of in British Columbia. Mr. Richards is supposed to have gone to the Yukon with a shipment of horses owned by a man named McGillivray. Mr. Richards is of short, chunky build, and aged about twenty-five years.

Coming to British Columbia.—Mr. E. M. Burwash, son of Chancellor Burwash of Victoria University, will leave Toronto shortly for New Westminster, to take a professorship in Columbian Methodist college, in the science department. He will bring with him all the scientific apparatus employed by Victoria university when it was located at Coburg and before its affiliation with Toronto university. This apparatus has been presented by Victoria university to the sister college.

Inspected Coast Timber.—G. D. Mackay, the newly appointed timber fire ranger, has just returned from a visit up the coast. He made an inspection as far as Drayton lake and the fires in the forests have done comparatively little damage this year. Most of the fires have been on land which had been logged over, and there naturally the results were not worth mentioning. At Port Neville and Granite Bay fairly large camp fires occurred, and at Paterson's camp the damage was apparent.

Children's Aid Society.—C. J. South, secretary of the Provincial Children's Aid Society, has received a splendid contribution from the Ladies' Benevolent Association of Fernie, a well-known $250 was received from Mrs. Thorpe, secretary of the society and wife of the mayor of Fernie. It will be remembered that a number of children were brought up by Mrs. South, who was outside of Fernie, but the council of that town was unable to assist financially. The ladies, however, took the matter up and held a garden party, at which the sum mentioned was realized.

Farewell Party.—At Ladysmith on Monday evening nearly forty well-known residents of the city sat down to a dinner given in token of friendship and good wishes, a well-known and favorite citizen of Ladysmith, David Murray, who has taken his departure for the northern gold fields, expecting to make that section his home. The number of friends present was caused by the capacity of the hunch rooms of the opera house. Every seat was filled and the committee would very gladly have extended invitations to others who were not present had there been accommodations. As it was, invitations were confined mostly to Mr. Murray's oldest friends.

A Tiny Mortal.—One of the tiniest mortals in the world has arrived in Vancouver. It is a little parcel of humanity, weighing only one and one quarter pounds. That is its present weight, but when the new-comer from the land of Lilliput first made its appearance it tipped the scales at the pound mark. This wee baby is at St. Luke's Home and has occasioned a considerable amount of interest among the medical fraternity. It is not exceptional that such a diminutive infant should be born, but the extraordinary circumstance is that it has not only succeeded in surviving for nearly two weeks, but there are excellent prospects for the baby's life being prolonged for the ordinary span of human existence.

Pills Long-felt Want.—That the new Queen's hospital opened at Rock Bay, up the northern coast, under the auspices of the Anglican Missionary society, was a much needed institution is evidenced by the fact that every single day the first few days after the opening the hospital has been full. Lately the accommodation has been so severely taxed that private rooms have been turned into wards and extra beds put in for the large number of patients who would otherwise have had to make a lengthy journey south for treatment. Among the patients who are being treated at present is a woman who, when she entered the hospital, bore another white coat for the first time in three years. She lives in an out-of-the-way settlement up the coast and is suffering from a badly scalded foot.

A Lively Town.—It is said a petition is being circulated in Stevenson paying the government to take cognizance of an extraordinary condition prevailing at that town. According to the Vancouver Province the petition recites: "The moral condition is in a fearful state, gambling houses are run wide open, with signs over the doors and tents inviting people in. Houses for prostitution are also wide open, without any attempt to cover up the goods of the trade. Lot are open at all hours on Sunday. The council and police have full knowledge of this, and it seems that the council of Richmond are running the police court to reveal only without any care for law or order; in fact they are making themselves partners in crime, gambling and prostitution."

Yukon River Falling.—The Yukon river between White Horse and Dawson has continued to fall. Advice regarding the condition of the stream as late as Thursday last are to the effect that the water was dropping in the Fifty-mile at White Horse at the rate of an inch a day. This rapid falling of water in the upper river at this rate means that shippers desirous of getting through goods into Dawson before the close of navigation will have to be quick about putting their freight on the road. With the falling of the water the river steamers of the White Pass route will be forced to take smaller cargoes from White Horse, with the result that as the end of the season of navigation approaches a congestion of late-shipped goods will occur at White Horse and hundreds of tons of freight sent north a little later than "the last moment" will be held at White Horse all winter.

Invited to Australia.—J. S. Larke, agent at Australia, in a statement made at Toronto the other day, said he was authorized by the president of the United Chambers of Commerce to invite Canada to send out representatives there next year and was sure they would be equally glad if the manufacturers came in a body. The Australian manufacturers are Britons and strong preferentialists. They had done nothing in that direction because the governments had gone in and out like figures in an Irish dance, but the leaders of all the parties were in favor of a preferential tariff. The export trade of Canada should be extended. Its manufacturers were the trade they should aim at a great export agency, with a capital of a quarter of a million, to take the goods of the manufacturers' hands for cash, and they should do the trade in their own ships. The Canadians should study to find out what they would give Australia in return for the advantages they would get there would be found a sympathetic people, who would do their best to stimulate trade between the countries.

Inspecting Inlet.—Asked as to the objective points of his party's northern exploratory trip, Andrew S. Iddings, of Dayton, Ohio, said: "The trip will cruise up Knight Inlet in a 35-foot sloop which has been specially equipped for the trip. Our Indian guides, one of whom accompanied us through the Peace river district in 1902, will join us at Fort Rupert. We are making the trip for the purpose of visiting the unexplored glaciers in the vicinity of Knight's Inlet. We expect to be absent about eight weeks and will return from Knight's Inlet in our sloop, calling in at the various points en route."

Cannery Problems.—Mainland cannery men are now debating whether they will have to meet the increase in price set by outsiders. The latter are setting a price-breaking pace for the former. The increase was started last Friday morning by the independent cannery men, who offered 12½ cents. That rate held, with few exceptions, until Tuesday morning, when the independent buyers fell to fighting among themselves over prices, with the result that bids ran up as high as 16½ cents. Associated cannery claim that at the last mentioned figure the thousands of fish which should have gone to their canneries went to the independent plants.

Stock the announcement that the great national exhibition this fall Sir William has been very active in stirring up interest in the exhibits and now he has set the pace for stock breeders by entering a forty-one head of short-horns. ## A Distinguished Honor and Graceful Compliment From the Late Great Master,

Mason & Risch, Toronto

Messrs. Mason & Risch:

Very Honored Gentlemen—The Mason & Risch Grand Piano you forwarded to me is excellent, magnificent, unequalled—(ist votrefflich, proechtig, musterhaft). Artists, judges and the public will certainly be of the same opinion.

With my sincerest regards I desire to send you my portrait. It has been painted for you by Baron Joukovsky, son of the renowned Russian author, and personal friend and instructor of the Emperor Alexander II.

But now this Liszt portrait has turned out to be so remarkably successful that people here * wished to have a second similar one from Joukovsky for the Museum. The painter kindly complied with the request, by which a delay of two or three months is necessitated in my forwarding the first portrait to Toronto.

Baron Joukovsky made the original sketches for the "Parsifal" scenes at Bayreuth, which were so successfully carried out.

Excuse, very honored gentlemen, the delay, and accept the assurance of my highest regard.

FRANZ LISZT.

*The Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, his family, and other friends of the master.
